Sat. Oct. 2, 3-4pm- Cosplay Like the Professionals! - It's easier than you think! Modify or create your costumes with advice from Cullen of Chaotic Neutral Cosplay. Join him live on Zoom as he covers tips, tricks, costume triage, and more. You can ask your questions live, or send questions to cdoane@portagelibrary.info and Cullen will answer them during the program.

Registration required.

Sat. Oct. 9, 2-4pm- From Lands Not So Far Away: Padded Weapons and Lightsaber Fencing Demo - Amtgard uses padded weapons, fantasy and authentic clothing, and imagination to immerse players in a world of heroic combat, quests, crafts, and more. Ludosport is a Light Saber fencing combat discipline started around 10 years ago by a group of talented martial artist friends who loved the Star Wars movies. They will both be running demos open to public participation, just outside the library (weather permitting), comfortable clothing encouraged.

Registration required.

Tue. Oct. 12, 7:30-8:30pm- A Brief History of Special Effects - Since the introduction of motion pictures over 100 years ago, people have found ways to stretch their imagination and create visually stunning illusions. WMU's Associate Professor, Kelly Wittenberg will discuss this very interesting history.

Registration required.

Sat. Oct. 16, 7-10pm- Level Up: Online Game Night - The Royal Manticoran Navy has shipped in a container of online family friendly games for Geekfest Online 2021. Their list includes Jackbox Games, Fluxx, Dominion and many more! All can all be played easily and quickly online. Jump in and out as you like.

Registration required.

Zoom - Portage District Library

Mon. Oct. 18, 6-8pm- Dungeons & Dragons Club - We'll have a one-shot campaign for all skill levels, led by Dungeon Master Miss Natalie. No dice or other supplies necessary, just bring your imagination and a sense of adventure.

In person - Kalamazoo Public Library

Tue. Oct. 19, 7-8pm- Sci-Fi & Fantasy Book Talk: Dune by Frank Herbert - Librarian Ruth will lead an open discussion about the classic science fiction book, Dune by Frank Herbert. Ruth will map all the characters, worlds, and special interest groups from the book.

Registration required.

In person - Portage District Library

Wed. Oct. 20, 6:30-8:30pm- Documentary & Donuts: Raiders! The Story of the Greatest Fan Film Ever Made - Come watch a thought-provoking documentary and enjoy some locally-made donuts at the library! In 1982, childhood friends began filming a shot-for-shot remake of Steven Spielberg's Raiders of the Lost Ark. Their remake was accidentally discovered 14 years later, praised by Spielberg, and became one of the most talked-about and sought-after cult films in cinematic history.

Registration Required.

In person - Portage District Library

Thur. Oct. 21, 6:30-8pm- Author: Jim Hines - Michigan native and fantasy/science fiction author comes to Geek Fest to talk about how and why to include humor in your SF/F stories! Join the Hugo Award-winning author of the Goblin Quest trilogy, the Princess series, Magic ex Libris, and the Janitors of the Post-Apocalypse, and take away tips for your own writing! A moderated question and answer session follows.

Zoom - Portage District Library

Sat. Oct. 23, 1-5pm- Honey Heist - A swiftly moving, interactive RPG about a group of bears in cool hats going for the big score from Honeycon, a large Honey Convention. You will roll dice to determine what type of bear you are, what role you will play in the heist, and what kind of cool hat you wear. Goal: Grab the honey and run before your Criminal nature or Bear traits undermine your plans.

Registration Required.

Zoom - Portage District Library

Mon. Oct. 25, 5:30-6:30pm- Dustin Pari: Haunted History of Halloween - Ah, Halloween. Autumnal breezes, crisp leaves, and pumpkin flavored everything! What is it about this time of year that is so enchanting, so mystifying? In this lecture Dustin sheds some light on the spooky shadows of Halloween history and lore. Ghost stories? Oh yeah, he has some of those too.

In person or Online - Kalamazoo Public Library
